Session on AI for Research
The resource person not clarified the doubt. Not paid individual attention. Without clarified the doubt completely, he just move on. The resource person need to take into account, atleast minimum concern level should remain to clarify the doubt and then to change his/her focus. So requesting to the IQAC coordinator, regarding doubt clearing put a word related to the above mentioned to resource person before the session begins Thank you
Need few more sessions regarding this particular topic
Very fruitful session , but need some more time to practice
