Report on Onam Celebration

Organized by Student Council, Loyola College of Education, Chennai

Date: 3rd September 2025

Venue: Arrupe Auditorium & Portico of LCE

Introduction

Loyola College of Education, Nungambakkam, Chennai, celebrated Onam Celebration on 3rd September 2025 with great enthusiasm and joy. Both events were organized by the Student Council of LCE under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. L. Kulandai Theresal, and the Secretary, Rev. Dr. Alphonse Manickam, SJ, along with faculty coordinators. The Onam Festival was celebrated at 2:00 p.m. in the LCE Portico with great traditional fervor.

The programme included:

- Welcome Speech and Onam Speech, highlighting the significance of Onam.
- Flower Offering and Thiruvathira, a traditional Kerala dance, which enthralled the audience.
- Cultural events such as girls' dance, boys' dance, and singing performances brought vibrancy to the event.
- Fun games were also conducted, adding excitement and cheer to the celebration.
- Felicitations were delivered by Rev. Dr. Alphonse Manickam, SJ, and Dr. L. Kulandai Theresal, appreciating the students' efforts.
- The programme concluded with the serving of the traditional sweet dish Payasam, marking the festive spirit of Onam.

Conclusion

The day was truly memorable as it combined gratitude to teachers with cultural celebration. The twin events strengthened the bond between teachers and students while also fostering cultural appreciation. The enthusiastic participation of students and the guidance of staff made the celebration a grand success.
