No. of participants in the Audience:	190
Objectives of the Programme	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ To create awareness among educators and academic leaders about the importance of inclusive leadership in diverse learning environments. ➤ To understand the role of leadership mindsets in promoting equity and inclusion in educational institutions. ➤ To explore strategies for creating inclusive learning ecosystems that support learners from diverse backgrounds. ➤ To encourage reflection on institutional policies and practices that promote diversity and inclusion. ➤ To highlight the need for institutional change through collaborative and transformative leadership.
Name & Details of the Resource Persons	Resource Person:Dr. Farita N. F. Viegas Dean, School of Education St. Aloysius (Deemed to be University) Mangaluru, India
Few insights given by the Resource Person	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Inclusive leadership begins with a mindset that respects diversity and values every learner in the educational ecosystem. ● Educational leaders must create safe, supportive and equitable learning

	environments where all students feel respected and included. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Inclusion is not limited to students with special needs; it also includes cultural, linguistic, socio-economic and learning diversity. ● Institutional leaders should promote policies and practices that ensure equal access, participation and success for all learners. ● Teachers play a crucial role in implementing inclusion through flexible teaching strategies and learner-centred approaches. ● Effective leadership requires collaboration among administrators, teachers, parents and the community to support inclusive education. ● Institutions must encourage continuous professional development to help educators understand and implement inclusive practices. ● Institutional change is gradual and requires commitment, shared vision and collective effort from all stakeholders. ● Technology and innovative teaching methods can enhance accessibility and participation in diverse learning environments. ● A culture of empathy, respect, and social justice is essential for building sustainable and inclusive educational institutions

Data: Catalyst or Tyrant

- Data can rank and discipline.
 - Or it can question and transform.
 - Who is invisible in our averages?
 - Who is invisible in our averages?
Whose struggle is normalised as mediocrity?
Whose silence is misread as disengagement?

Ecosystem Feedback Loop

A learning ecosystem is a network of interacting forces of policy, incentives, culture, language, economy and politics
