Few insights given by the Resource Person

- Effective educational leadership can be strengthened by understanding how the brain learns, processes information and responds to different learning environments.
- Positive emotions, encouragement, and supportive classroom climates enhance brain engagement and improve students' learning outcomes.
- Leaders in education should promote teaching strategies that align with principles of Neuroscience and Educational Psychology to make learning more meaningful.
- Reflection, critical thinking and collaborative learning help stimulate neural connections and support deeper understanding among learners.
- Institutional leaders play a key role in creating learning ecosystems that nurture curiosity, creativity and lifelong learning.
- Continuous professional development is essential for teachers to integrate brain-based learning approaches into their classroom practices.

Thought Provoking Session

In more precise

Very informative
It could have been a workshop as the topic is too interesting
Any workshop related to research especially mixed methods
Thank you so much, this is very informative
Was inspiring
Excellent and informative. Thank you.
Well organized
Wonderful session
Can have more sessions on neuroscience
Very Useful Session
Very useful and informative session for Staff and students
This was a interesting topic , it would have been more informative if it was gone in detail
Good session
Very informative Session
The network issue was there when we are attending the workshop
Need frequent sessions
My suggestion is to take a seminar offline so it will be not any problem of network or audio
Yes very informative and the book recommendation was good
Learning for new ideas and experience
Very Good
Everything is good
Overall, seminar was informative.

Respected Anthony sir speech was very nice and knowledgeable.we learn something new about neuroscience, brain functions and teachers duties and the presentation with the video, made us to concentrate more it was interactive and interested . Finally I like to thank our college and sir for this arrangements .
Very Good session but ask the resource person to change the content
Nice, informative
Fr Antony Raj is an Expert in Psychology. He took a two-day seminar in our college in 2018. People love his sessions.

Every thing is good

Must be interesting,

It was very informative and useful and In this seminar I learned many information like time management , etc

Very Informative

Well-organized

Excellent effort

Excellent

Informative Session

Very useful for this session

Over all presentation is amazing.

Require more sessions on this

The language is in English. Next time they try to teach in bilingual so that will reach every student

Continue the Process

More offline sessions like this will be helpful and interactive

Overall, this session gave me a different positive perspective.

More example from classroom related situation

Expecting more events such programs

This screenshot shows the first slide of a presentation. The slide features a large 'WELCOME' text in a yellow box at the top left. Below it, a photograph of a man in a dark jacket speaking into a microphone is displayed. To the right of the photo, the text reads 'LEADERS OF LEARNING (LEARN TO LEAD)'. The Google Meet interface includes a 'People' panel on the right with 35 contributors listed, and a bottom toolbar with various meeting controls. The browser address bar shows the meeting URL.
